

SSC-screenBOOK

Pages to read on your screen

Fulbright Seminar for U.S. Administrators in International Education Career Service Group

Getting to know Siegen

25th October '09, some impressions

"Siegplatte", bronze statues "Henner & Frieder"

The Apollo theatre in Siegen: partly financed by commercial and private donors

Excited about Siegen: The guide

Guinness Book of Records: The most precipitous shopping street

„Martinikirche“ at night

„Schloßplatz“

The entrance to the mausoleum

Inside the mausoleum

View from the stairs

The former heart of the city: surrounded by the mausoleum the museum of contemporary art and a small shopping mall

The old „Poststraße“ and the iron cows

„Marienkirche“: the only sacred building from the Baroque period in Siegen. It was built in 1702 until 1725

The „Altstadt“

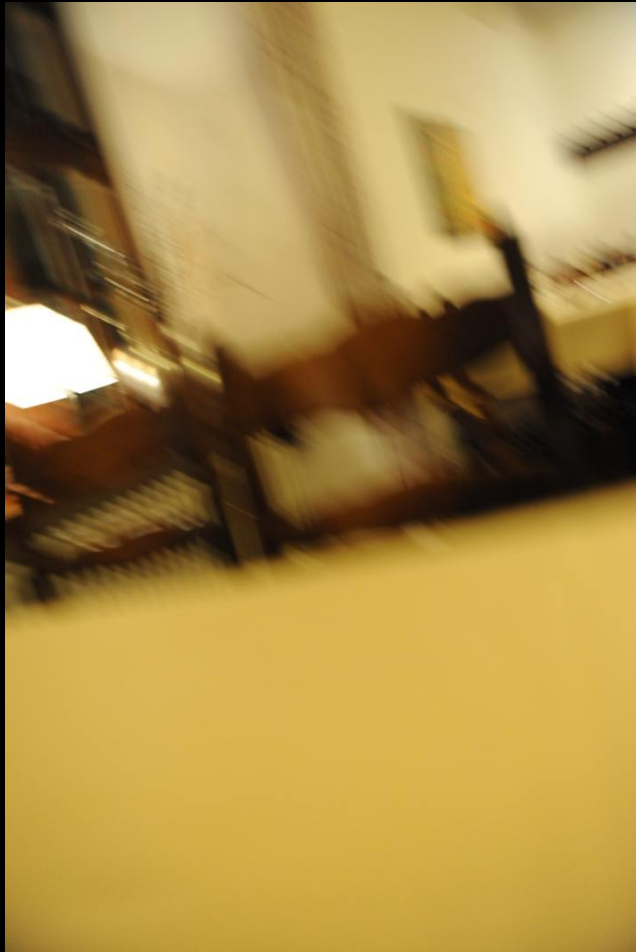

Siegen's Market Square in front of the „Nikolaikirche“

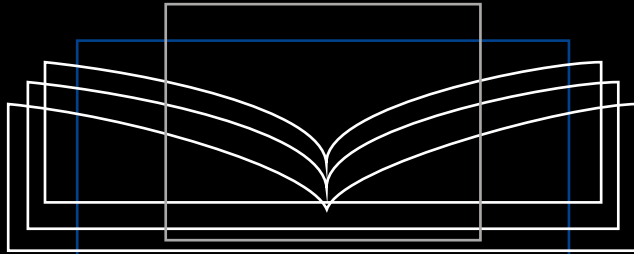

In front of the upper castle

Inside the upper castle: the „Siegerlandmuseum“

Dinner in the „Schloss-Stuben“

SSC-screenBOOK

Pages to read on your screen

SSC-screen BOOKS are electronic books in a PDF format which are designed to be read like a real book on every kind of screen. Just open the file in full size and read it exactly like a book, page by page. No scrolling, no zooming, no shifting from backward to forward. Simply push the key <Page down> to turn to the next page. Have fun!

Fulbright Seminar for U.S. Administrators in International Education

Career Service Group

Getting to know Siegen

25th October '09, some impressions

Concept and realisation: Marcellus Menke, SSC Uni Siegen

Editorial staff: Lori Thomas, SSC Uni Siegen

Photography: Marcellus Menke, SSC Uni Siegen

Student Service Center
Studienberatung Career Alumni