

Intensive German Courses at the University of Siegen

Program information:

For the first time ever the Language Center and the International Office offer a program of intensive German language courses in combination with a cultural oriented introductory program.

This program is open to all international graduate and postgraduate degree students in Siegen, as well as to prospective international students applying for a study program/semester in Siegen.

Courses are free of charge for all participants who are or will be enrolled at the University of Siegen. All German courses are worth credit points.

Schedule and deadlines:

Placement tests: September 5 - 8, 2017 at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Language Course: September 11 - 29, 2017, Monday - Friday, 8 - 12 a.m.
Only bookings for the complete language course will be accepted.

Placement tests are compulsory for all students who have not taken courses at the Language Center previously.

The cultural oriented introductory program, intercultural seminars, and seminars about learning and studying in Germany are optional.

Registration:

Please, fill in the form and send it via e-mail to the following address:

birgit.graumann@spz.uni-siegen.de

Registration deadline: July 31, 2017

For all those who have LSF access, please register via LSF in addition to the form.

www.uni-siegen.de/sprachenzentrum

First name / Last name: _____

E-Mail: _____

Matriculation number in Siegen (if available): _____

Home University: _____

Study program: _____

German language level: _____

Expectations: _____

Interest in introductory program: yes no