What is a MUN?

Model United Nations (MUN) is a conference where university students and high school students from all over the world come together to simulate international politics.

Every participant plays a role as a diplomat representing the position of her/his country in a simulated session of a committee of the United Nations, such as the Security Council and the General Assembly.

Therefore, all participants research about a country, investigate international issues, debate, deliberate, consult, and then develop together solutions to world's problems.
