Challenge as part of the Digital Diversity Days 2021 #SeeTheUnseen

We would like to use the work you have submitted (attached to this letter for clarification) for PR and advertising purposes as part of Diversity Week on the University of Siegen's website and social media pages.

You hereby declare that the work submitted by you does not infringe the rights of third parties and that no personal rights, in particular the right to one's own image, are violated in the representation or depiction of persons. Consent must be obtained from the persons depicted (in the case of underage children, from all legal guardians; in the case of young people aged 16 or over, also from the child itself). All persons depicted and recognisable on/in the attached work are listed at the bottom of this document and have consented to these uses and express this consent by signing this document.

Furthermore, the persons depicted consent to being named by the University of Siegen in the above-mentioned publications within the scope of the granted use, with the mention of their name in connection with their place of residence.

The University of Siegen may use the submitted works without any time, place and content restrictions in any form, regardless of the transmission, carrier and storage techniques (in particular electronic image processing) journalistically for illustration and promotional purposes of the Diversity Week. The University of Siegen is not entitled to grant third parties the right to use the works. The use or exploitation must be directly related to measures for the University of Siegen.

The signatories remain the authors of their work. Any further use beyond the above-mentioned PR and promotional purposes within the framework of Diversity Week shall only be made with the consent of the authors.

The signatories have received a countersigned copy of this declaration of consent.

Should one or more of the above provisions be or become invalid, this shall not affect the remaining provisions. They shall be replaced by a valid provision that comes as close as possible to the invalid one, including in economic terms.
