With my signature I confirm that

- I did not fail or did not fail ultimately a Master's Exam in a similar study programme at a higher education institution in Germany and I did not lose the examination right due to a missed examination deadline. I confirm that I am not currently a candidate within a pending examination procedure in the same study programme at another university.
- I have taken note of the guidelines for dealing with "AI-based" language models/ text generators (ChatGPT or similar) in the Faculty of Arts and Humanities and will clearly indicate all material from other works, either as quote or paraphrase, and the use of AI-based text generators as such.
