

Code: 1/2

Committee: General Assembly

Topic: Refugee Protection

Sponsors: China, Democratic Republic of Congo, Mozambique

Signatories: Bolivia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Egypt, France, Germany, India, Iran, Japan, Libya, Morocco, Pakistan, Peru, Saudi Arabia, South Africa, Sudan, Sweden, Zimbabwe

- 1 The General Assembly,
2
3 Recalling the 1951 Convention relating to the status of refugees and 1967 Protocol,
4
5 Guided by the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) Agenda for Protection and its goals,
6
7 Fully aware of every member state's sovereignty within their borders,
8
9 Noting with approval the Convention of the African Union and the Cartagena Protocol,
10
11 Being concerned about the current security situation in Refugee Camps,
12
13 Fully aware of the dangers especially for women and children in such camps,
14
15 Noticing that threats to the lives and well-being of refugees and the crime in these camps,
16
17 Taking note of the financial crisis concerning these camps,
18
19 Noting a need for more medical supplies in these camps,
20
21 1. Authorizes that at the recommendation of each individual camp manager, law enforcement officers shall
22 increase to a point at which crime is significantly decreased; these officers will police the grounds of the 23 camp and ensure the security of the individuals inside; the officers shall also be placed in the fence (or 24 border) of the camp and take action to stop any aggressor with the intention of inflicting harm to any
25 individual inside the camp; the officers shall not break the Rules of Engagement already set forth by the 26 United Nations;
27
28 2. Urges that camp managers shall herein be made more responsible for the activities within the camps;
29
30 3. Considers that camp managers shall receive a salary increase of 10%, citing the inadequate salaries of 31 the camp managers.
32
33 4. Requests that each monthly report about the camps activities includes a report about the performance of 34 the camp managers;

35
36
37
38
39
40
41
42
43
44
45
46
47
48
49
50
51
52
53
54
55
56
57
58
59
60
61
62
63
64
65
66
67
68
69
70

5. Further requests upon receiving two poor performance reviews the camp managers' position shall be terminated. A replacement manager shall be put into office within two weeks of the termination;
6. Cites the need to improve camp conditions and performance, therefore two UNHCR representatives shall be sent to each camp; one representative will be an efficiency expert who will reorganise the camp so there is a fire safety system in place, as well as an improved access point to the first aid and food tents; the other expert shall travel from camp to camp writing a monthly report on
  - (a) Crime levels within the camp
  - (b) The performance of the camp manager
  - (c) Illegal activities of rebel groups in the area
  - (d) Recommendations on how to improve the problems written in the report;
7. Considers an educational program for border guards in order to stop human trafficking and also considers an educational program for the refugees in the camps to allow them to spot illegal activities and see criminals;
8. Urges to stop the trade weapons to non-governmental and subnational groups in conflict zones;
9. Recommends an adequate and immediate registration of all refugees with the intent of allowing them to find their family members, so that each country has the ability to decide if they want this system integrated in their country. This system will assist the current identification system and improve it;
10. Emphasizes the importance of local groups and humanitarian groups or Non-governmental Organizations (NGOs) which help reach the goals of this resolution thereby allowing countries who prefer local humanitarian groups before NGOs to do so;
11. Recommends further that donations as well as medical supplies and voluntary assistance be given by various states;
12. Further proclaims that funding be obtained by donations from various states in order to fund vocational training facilities for the refugees' use;
13. Demands that these participants be treated with respect and paid a living wage to which the refugees can start a new life with a UNHCR representative being sent to monitor these conditions in the vocational training facilities to ensure human rights are being granted.