

Attestation of International Competences (AIC/BIK)

An experience report from Jennifer Rödel

Agenda

- What is the AIC/BIK?
- What can be credited?
- What are its benefits?
- My personal experience
- How does it work?

What is the AIC/BIK?

Attestation of International Competence
Bescheinigung Interkultureller Kompetenzen

- An official recognition of the international commitment of students
- Issued by the Vice-Dean's Office for International Affairs at the Faculty of Arts and Humanities
- Includes a variety of creditable activities

The Faculty of Arts and Humanities of the University of Siegen issues this

Attestation of International Qualifications to

Template

Siegen, _____

Vice-Dean for International Relations

What can be credited?

Mobility

Final thesis in foreign language

Additional participations

Honorary international commitment

Intercultural communication & language courses

•International projects

To receive the certificate, at least three out of six sections and a total of twelve LPs must be obtained.

What are its benefits?

- Possibility of internationalization at the University of Siegen without going abroad
- Good overview and clear presentation of all gathered international experience
- Recognition of extracurricular or honorary commitments by the University
- Broaden your horizon and learn something new

My personal experience

- Did the Mentoring Programme two times
- Went to Italy for ERASMUS+ semester
- Became a member and also the PR-Manager of ESN-Siegen
- Improved my Language and Soft-Skills
- Learned a lot about other cultures and countries
- Helped to find an internship
- Found new friends with the same mindset

How does it work?

- Simply contact Mrs. Luz Pacas Castro pacas@phil.uni-siegen.de
 - No time limit for the provision of services
 - Make sure to have proof of your experiences/services
- Make new experiences 😊

Thank you for your attention!

Are there any questions?

