

THE EUROPEAN UNION'S OUTERMOST REGIONS IN THE CARIBBEAN AND THEIR SOVEREIGN NEIGHBOURS HISTORICAL BACKGROUND AND LAW

Thursday, 18th February 2016

Hall of the Academic Senate, AR-UB 032

10:00 Raphaela Averkorn (Siegen): Welcome address

10:30 Panel I: Historiography and History

Chair: Raphaela Averkorn (Siegen)

Benoît Bérard (Fort-de-France)

Europe, the circum-Caribbean sphere, the Atlantic world - is there a good space for the Antillean history?

Marta Schmidt (Siegen)

The Indian diaspora in the Caribbean: A socio-economic analysis

14.00 Panel II: The political, legal and economic situation

Chair: Gerd Morgenthaler (Siegen)

Danielle Perrot (Fort-de-France)

The application of the EU public policies in the Outermost Regions - constraints and opportunities

Brigitte Facorat-Gaspard (Pointe-à-Pitre)

The customs and tax status of the French outermost regions in the EU

Alain Maurin (Fort-de-France)

Convergence and disparities within the European Union: what is the positioning of the French territories of America (TFA) after four decades of implementation of structural funds?

17:30 Plenary Discussion

Jean Monnet Conference

THE EUROPEAN UNION'S OUTERMOST REGIONS IN THE CARIBBEAN AND THEIR SOVEREIGN NEIGHBOURS HISTORICAL BACKGROUND AND LAW

Friday, 19th February 2016

Hall of the Academic Senate, AR-UB 032

10.00 -12.30 Working Groups in Room AR-B 2211

13.30 Panel III: The Outermost Regions and the EU
Chair: Benoît Bérard (Fort-de-France)

Isabelle Vestris (Fort-de-France)

The legal status of the Outermost Regions in the EU

Carlos Eduardo Pacheco Amaral (Ponta Delgada)

The Azores and the Euro-Atlantic space: crisis, autonomy and international relations

Giuliana Laschi (Forli)

A globalized Europe: the outermost regions in a diachronic analysis

16.30 Working Groups in Room AR-B 2211

17.30 Presentations

19.00 Closing Ceremony

Jean Monnet Conference