WORKSHOP PROGRAM

Friday, 11. December 2015, AR-B 2014/15

15:00-15:30  PD Dr. Bertold Schweitzer - Politics and International Relations, Dundee/
Dr. Thomas Sukopp - Department of Philosophy, Siegen
Introduction

15:30-16:15  PD Dr. Bertold Schweitzer - Politics and International Relations, Dundee
A European community of savants? Transnational epistemic networks in biology

16:30-17:15  Dr. Stephen Rozee - Politics and International Relations, Dundee Expert communities and security: Neofunctional integration in European policing practices

17:15-18:00  Prof. Dr. Angela Schwarz - Department of History, Siegen Intersecting Anglo-American Networks in Popular Science and their Functions in the Late Nineteenth Century

Saturday, 12. December 2015, AR-B 2014/15

9:00-9:45  Julie Patarin-Jossec M.A. - Faculty of Sociology, College of Humanities, Bordeaux:
Boundaries in outer space: international collaboration, epistemic translation and division of expert labor within the European Space Agency

9:45-10:30  Dr. Patricia Bauer - Politics and International Relations, Dundee Staging European research communities: The European Union’s Research and Exchange Programmes

10:45-11:30  Dr. Thomas Sukopp - Department of Philosophy, Siegen
Early modern chemistry between art and science: Dissemination of knowledge in European scientific networks

11:30-12:00  Concluding remarks - Resumée - Outlook on further activities

Contact:
Thomas Sukopp - sukopp@philosophie.uni-siegen.de - Department of Philosophy, Siegen www.uni-siegen.de/phil/philosophie