

DFG-Netzwerk "Privatisierung von Sicherheit"

2. Workshop München, 23.-24. Mai 2013

Programm

Tagungsstätte

Munich Center on Governance der LMU
(MCG)
Seminarraum
Schönfeldtstr. 13a

23. Mai, Donnerstag

- 9:00-10:00 Organisatorisches
- 10:00-12:00 Medienschulung
Referentinnen aus der "Stabsstelle Kommunikation und Presse" der
LMU: Luise Dirscherl (Leiterin), Nicola Holzapfel (Forschungsredaktion)
- 12:00-13:30 Mittagspause
- 13:30-15:15 Panel 1
Ulrich Petersohn (ETH Zürich): Social Capital on the Market for Force
Andrea Schneiker (Universität Siegen): Watchdog or Consultant?
Explaining the Tame Response of NGOs to Private Military and Security Companies
Discussant: Anna Leander (Copenhagen Business School)
- 15:15-15:45 Kaffeepause
- 15:45-17:30 Panel 2
Andreas Kruck (LMU München): The Evolution of Security Privatization:
Causal Dynamics in the Use of Private Military and Security Companies
Discussant: Anna Leander (Copenhagen Business School)
Anna Leander (Copenhagen Business School): "Strong Objectivity" in Security Studies: Ethnographic Contributions to Method Development
Discussant: the whole group
- 18:00 Workshop Dinner: Café Reitschule: <http://www.cafe-reitschule.de/>

24. Mai, Freitag

9:30-11:15 Panel 3

Åsne Kalland Aarstad (Aarhus University): The public, the private and the political: new public/private responsibilities in the face of maritime piracy

Annina Bürgin (Universidad de A Coruña): Why do States cooperate with private security providers? Some theoretical considerations

Discussant: James Pattison (University of Manchester)

11.15-11.45 Kaffeepause

11.45-13.30 Panel 4

James Pattison (University of Manchester): Private Military and Security Companies and the Global Public Monopoly on Force

Discussant: the whole group

Danach Abreise