Modules during the semester abroad (3rd Semester)

Alternative
Thematic Module
Abroad (18cp)

MM 1.2, MM.1.3
Thesis Forum II (1
SWS, 3 cp + 3cp)

Additional and Practical Modules
(3+3)

Studies Abroad: Thematic Module Abroad (18 cp)

The module will be concerned with programme-related contents, methods and theories in the fields of history, political science, sociology and related subjects such as cultural studies. The concrete curriculum is to be agreed in detail with the respective partner university and is to be defined in a Learning Agreement.

Students will analyse democratization in a global context:

- problematize the limits, scales and concepts of democracy (e.g. E-Democracy)
- identify the role of different actors (media, social movements, literature) for the implementation of democratic ideals in different world regions
- evaluate how (democratic) institutions and processes develop, or fail to develop, in new states and in post-revolutionary and post-colonial situations
- be able to understand the dynamics of conflicts and wars, considering various geopolitical areas.
- be able to understand supranational organisations from a historical, institutional and comparative stance,
- analyse international relations in geo-political and strategic terms, security policies, conflict management and prevention of political crises
- be able to reflect critically and comparatively on ways different regions developed politically, economically, socially and culturally.
- be able to use a critical and comparative approach in working with historical sources and historical accounts and further research material

Studies Abroad: Thematic Module Abroad (18 cp)

In all your learning agreement should include a total of around 30 cp (this depends on the current progress of your studies) All courses must be attended on Masters' level (Second Cycle!), Exception: language courses

Application Process - Basics

- Application for: WS 2023/2023 and Summer 2024!
- Application done via Move On Plattform of International Student Affairs:
- <https://www.uni-siegen.de/outgoing/europe/sms/application/index.html.en?lang=en>
- Application:
 - Online application
 - CV
 - Transcript of Records (alternatively copy of BA certificate)
 - Letter of Motivation (motivation letter for each application)
 - Language Certificate
 - Enrollment Certificate (unisono)
- It is recommended to apply for at least three partner universities! This way you have the possibility to move up if you are not selected for your first choice (possibility to move up for your 2nd or 3rd choice) . If you select only one university and you are not selected, you cannot move up and consequently not realize a study stay abroad. A new application at the next possible date (e.g. remaining places for the summer semester) is then necessary.
- Deadline to submit documents online

• !!!!!!!15th December 2022!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Portal

Welcome to the application portal for Outgoing students

This portal regroups all application formalities for your stay, starting from the first application to your stay offer.

Application deadlines

Erasmus+ Studies abroad:

December 15 (first application round)

June 15 (second application round)

Overseas Exchange:

November 30 (first application round)

May 31 (second application round)

PROMOS:

January 15 (first application round)

Erasmus+ Application for a Traineeship Grant	Start new application
Online Application for Overseas Exchange (outside of Erasmus)	(Not available)
PROMOS Online Application for Nominated/Accepted Exchange Students	(Not available)
PROMOS Online Application for Stays outside our Exchange Programs	(Not available)

Your applications

Here you can find a list of all your applications from start until submission and acceptance.

Further procedure:

The documents submitted are then forwarded to the appropriate departmental coordinator. Please note that only those applications that are complete and were submitted prior to the deadlines can be forwarded for further processing.

After you were chosen by the respective coordinator, the Department of International Student Affairs offers you the exchange seats you were chosen for. You will receive an email with the information to log in to the online application portal where you have to accept the chosen seat within the given period of time.

Following this step, the Department of International Student Affairs nominates you to the given partner institution, which will then provide you with further information. Please bear in mind that the answer might be delayed for several months, depending on the process of the partner institution and on the semester during which you plan to stay abroad

You will be informed about all further steps and obligations for the Erasmus+ Program in an information event in the summer by the Department of International Student Affairs.

Tax information

Erasmus+ grants are mobility scholarships from public funds of the European Commission and are generally tax-free in the Federal Republic of Germany according to §3 No. 44a EStG (German Income Tax Act) . At the same time there is an obligation for the University of Siegen to report your data to the national tax authorities. Each year, the University of Siegen reports the following data to the national tax authorities (if required by German Law): first and last name, address, tax number and date of birth, type of claim, amount and date of payment; in the case of recurring payments, the first payment, payment method and the expected duration of payments. Please note that scholarship recipients are responsible for fulfilling tax recording and declaration obligations individually with regard to income from the Erasmus+ programme vis-à-vis the tax authorities (§ 12 MV).
