

Important Information:

Copying work by others, explaining a particular idea using someone else's words and concepts without making clear that it's a quote or downloading essays or parts of essays from the internet without putting them in inverted commas and indicating their source is regarded as intentional plagiarism. Intentional plagiarism is no small matter, but a disciplinary offense.

Please consider this information while preparing your thesis proposal.

Confirmation

I hereby confirm that this Master Thesis Proposal is entirely my own work and that I have not used any additional assistance or resources other than indicated. All quotations, paraphrases, information and ideas that have been taken from other sources (including the Internet as well as other electronic sources) and other persons' work have been cited appropriately and provided with the corresponding bibliographical references. The same is true of all drawings, sketches, pictures and other illustrations that appear in the text. I am aware that the neglect to indicate the used sources is considered as fraud and plagiarism in which case sanctions are imposed that can lead to the suspension or permanent expulsion of students in serious cases.
