

We would like to invite you to the 2nd Paderborn – Siegen English and American Studies Postgraduate Colloquium

The colloquium intends to offer young scholars of English and American literary and cultural studies a forum to present their work at various stages of their dissertation. It also provides the opportunity to exchange ideas and thoughts on other current research projects in a relaxed yet productive environment.

The 2nd Paderborn – Siegen English and American Studies Postgraduate Colloquium will take place from

Friday, May 27, 2011 (afternoon) – Saturday, May 28, 2011 (noon)

The location will be the Tagungshaus Haus Busch in Hagen, centrally located between Paderborn and Siegen and easy to reach by private and public transportation. The costs will be ca. € 85 per person including accommodation and all meals (afternoon coffee, dinner buffet, breakfast buffet, lunch).

If you are interested in presenting your work and/or contributing to the discussions, please submit your proposal to:

Eric Erbacher
erbacher@mail.uni-paderborn.de

and

Tanja Reiffenrath
tanja.reiffenrath@upb.de

by May 1, 2011

Your proposal should include

- the title of the presentation
- an abstract of not more than 300 words
- a short biographical note of not more than 100 words
- requests for technical equipment (projector, sound, notebook, internet, etc.)

Presentations should not be longer than 15-20 minutes and will be followed by a discussion.

The final program as well as more detailed information will be made available via e-mail.

We're looking forward to meeting you in Hagen in May 2011!
